President's Message

Welcome to Fall 2017 at the West Falls-Colden Community Library. The Library is having two fundraisers this fall, the first one generously presented by St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and the second our annual used book sale. The library operates on donations and by volunteers. The monies raised by these two events will be greatly appreciated and used strictly to enhance the services that we provide to you, our local friends and neighbors.

Our Fall Event schedule is included in the newsletter and I sincerely hope that there is something of interest for you to participate in and enjoy.

We would like to thank the West Falls Women's Connection for their continued support; they plant and maintain our gardens, as well as providing funds for snacks and craft materials for Story Hour.

Nathan Stoddart of BSA Troop #599 has chosen our library as his Eagle Project. He will shortly begin working with his volunteer crew on painting the exterior windows and walls as well as staining the two benches previously donated by scouts. Thank you in advance to Nathan and friends.

We're looking forward to seeing you soon. The library is here for you; let us know if there is something that could enhance your visits.

Gloria Potzler, President

Library Activities

This beautiful painting by artist, Bill White, was donated to the West Falls-Colden Community Library in memory of his mother, Joan, who was a long time volunteer at the library. The White family lived across the street from the library for many years. Bill no longer lives in West Falls, but his dad, Wes, still resides in the area. We are grateful to have this beautiful painting hanging in our library.
